Students!

Uncle Sam.

But the man in the middle, Coach Ben Winkelman, well, he's beyond feeling now, numbed by the shock of it all. Once there were 45 but now the latest count is 35.

Who knows when it will end?

Students!

Uncle Sam.

STUDENT ASSEMBLY TODAY IN QUAD

EXPLANATION OF DRAFT REGULATION, DEFERMENT IN DEAN'S OFFICE TODAY

Explanations of draft regulations and deferment are available to all students registered for selective service in the dean of men's office today, announces Paul Pitman.

Every man student under deferment must submit a statement of information and a college affidavit to the local draft board if he is to be reclassified before June by the board for further deferment. Copies of the form to be used can be obtained in the dean's office.

"In paragraph 352 of the regulations, it is provided that a registrant shall be placed in class 11-A if the registrant is found by the local board to be a necessary man in any industry, business employment, agricultural pursuit, governmental service or any other service or endeavor or in training or preparation thereof, the maintenance of which is necessary to the nation's health, safety or interest," explains Lewis B. Hershey, deputy director of the national headquarters of the selective service system.

"Local boards shall give proper weight to this provision in dealing with the claim for occupational deferment or necessary men engaged in training or preparation for activities necessary to the national health, safety or interest," (Continued on Page 4)

'Holiday' Cast In Rehearsal

With Elena Lindeman and Clarence Cassell cast as Linda Seton and Johnny Case respectively, production on "Holiday", the last San Jose Players offering of the quarter, is well under way, according to James Clancy, director.

The light comedy will have a three-night run on May 22, 23, and 24, with students being admitted for 25 cents and outsiders for 50 cents. The offering is an all-Players production.

Besides the leading roles, other characters include Barbara Lee Bellah as Julia Seton and Harrison McCreath as Ned. Roberta Long will be seen as Susan, and Roy Crothers will portray Nick.

Edward Seton will be played by Archie Case and the part of Laura Crown will be taken by Betty Stuhlman. Seton Crown will have Howard Melton cast in that role. The two butlers, Henry and Charles, will be played by Ed Soares and John Caro, respectively. Mary Kirtley will be seen as the maid.

Fee Deadline

Today and tomorrow are the last two days for students to pay their fees with the additional $1 late fee.

Anyone who has failed to do so should report to room 2, the Business office, immediately.

National Music Week Feted By Two Recitals

National music week is being recognized on the campus with a woodwind concert in the Little Theater tonight at 8:15, and a student piano recital scheduled in the same place, Sunday, at 5 p.m. The Pro-Arte string quartet appeared in a recital last night to start this week's musical activities.

The 11-piece woodwind choir will be conducted by Thomas E. Eagan, member of the music faculty. Mrs. Lydia Boothby, also of the faculty, will present a harp solo as a highlight of the evening, Eagan states.

Two student soloists on the program will be Corrine Gorham, who will play "Concerto No. 1 for Bassoon" by Mozart, and Melvin Buflo, oboist who performed in last week's symphonic band concert, playing "Concerto No. 8 for Oboe" by Handel.

The program, which is divided into three parts, includes in the first section: "Suite for Woodwinds" by Dubois and "Paintings From an Artist's Sketchbook" by Gates. The second division lists the following: Bach's "Largo", "Gavotte" by Gluck-Brahms, and "Two French Songs" by Grandy.

Numbers in the last group are: Mozart's bassoon concerto, and "Two American Sketches" by Blattner.

Benning Dexter, music instructor, will present seven of his advanced piano students in Sunday night's recital. Those performing were chosen out of Dexter's classes, and will appear to represent the work done by them in a year's time.

The program, scheduled to last an hour, lists 13 varied compositions by Beethoven, Schubert, Brahms, Chopin and Debussy.

There will be no admission charge to either of these affairs, declares Eagan.

'PIN LETTERS' PLANNED AGAIN

"Pin letters" will be mailed to the presidents of campus organizations again this year, in an effort to make a record of pins used as organization insignias.

The object of the move is to keep on file in Dean Dimmick's office a reproduction of all pins so duplication can be avoided when patterns are chosen.

The plan was started last year by the student council. Anyone wishing further information about the move should see George Coles, assistant chairman.

'Y' Redwood Lodge Outing May 17-18

"How to Live and Like It" will be the theme of the Redwood Lodge outing, sponsored by college "Y" members, to be held on the week-end of May 17 and 18.

Reservations are now being taken in the YWCA office. Cost is $1.75, and 25 cents must be paid when the reservation is made.

SIXTEEN CANDIDATES IN CAMPAIGN FOR COUNCIL

Sixteen candidates signed up for seven positions in the new student council and three students registered as yell leaders late yesterday afternoon.

A general student body assembly will be held at 11:20 in the quad today with the last fifteen minutes of the meeting devoted to nominating students for council posts.

POETRY READING PRELIMINARIES TODAY AT 4

Students wishing to enter the poetry reading contest may sign their name and the poem they have selected to read on the list outside Ray Irwin's office, room 165B, any time before preliminary try-outs begin at 4 this afternoon.

All students except those who are members of KSJS, radio speaking society, which is sponsoring the contest, are eligible to enter. Final competition will take place a week from today.

Three prizes are being offered. First prize, "The Oxford Book of English Poetry", is being donated by the California Book store. Second and third prizes will be books of poetry provided by the society.

A list of 50 poems which may be selected for reading has been posted on the bulletin board outside Irwin's office, as well as a list not to be read.

The contest is an entirely new campus activity. Judges have been selected from the Speech faculty and include Miss Marie Carr, Ted Hatlen, and Irwin, KSJS adviser.

The society is making plans for other activities, and a meeting of the organization will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 in room 155.

At that time the cast will be chosen for the "Giant Stair" and other important plans will be formulated, states Eda Florian, president.

SOCIAL GROUP PLANS BENEFIT

Members of Delta Beta Sigma, social society, are making plans for a bridge-benefit tea scheduled at the San Jose Country club, Saturday afternoon.

Proceeds from this affair will be diverted into a fund which will supply some non-organization woman at San Jose State college with a scholarship loan. Mary Virginia Gaspar is chairman, assisted by Mildred Cline, Elizabeth Cooper, and Jessie Gaspar.

Several door prizes will be offered, including merchandise orders and novelties.

Entertainment will be provided by local youngsters, who will dance and play piano numbers, declares Miss Gaspar.

Tickets priced at 50 cents per person or $2 a table are on sale from any member of the sorority who may be reached at 80 South Sixth street, according to Dorothea Bernsdorf, president of the group.

Election will be held Wednesday, May 14, in special booths in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium from 8 to 5 o'clock.

Voters must check at least five names on the ballot and not more than seven to make it valid, according to Ben Frizzi, election judge.

The seven highest candidates will be named members of the student council. The student body president and vice-president will be elected from these seven at a general student body election Friday, May 18. Any necessary runoff will be held the following Monday.

Campaign rules submitted by the election committee restrict the erecting of posters until 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the placing them near the Morris Dailey auditorium on election day. No signs will be allowed outside the main quad entrance.

Any students interested in trying out for head or assistant yell leaders will be able to demonstrate their talents before the assembly today, according to Tom Taylor, head yell leader.

The meeting today will be the second general student assembly in nine years.

The assembly schedule will go into effect as follows:

First period—8:10 to 8:48.
Second period—8:58 to 9:36.
Third period—9:46 to 10:24.
Fourth period—10:45 to 11:12.
Fifth period—11:20 to 12:00 (student body assembly).

Blue Cards Out

Students failing to maintain a satisfactory grade average this quarter will receive blue cards in the mail today.

These cards are issued once each quarter to Spartans in order that they may be aware of failing work.

'Statesmen' Play For Newman Club Dance

"Moonlight Sonata" is the theme of Newman club's annual spring semi-formal this year, according to Chairman Gene Sunia.

Bids sell for $1.25 and may be secured from members or at the club house at 79 S. Fifth street.

Music for the occasion will be supplied by the Statesmen. Several musical features will be played, according to Sunia.

The spring theme will be carried out by appropriate decorations along the garden motif. The veranda will be provided with garden furniture.

The Semi-Annual Beef . . .

For two quarters and part of this one, the students pick their morning copy of the Spartan Daily out of the yellow distribution boxes and beyond reading their favorite columnist, the sports they may have an interest in, or a news story of sufficient prominence they are content to let the twenty writers and copy readers that make up this staff use their own ingenuity in producing 320 inches of campus news and opinion five times a week.

With the rush of activities that come with this quarter, class committeemen, handshakers and self-appointed school politicians suddenly take an unusual interest in the way the paper is put out and particularly in the things that go into it.

For three long hours every afternoon the members of the staff of this paper work in a "disorderly confusion". Unlike the writers on the weekly high school or JC papers that most of the students are familiar with, these eighteen workers KNOW what they're doing, though it may not seem that way.

We appreciate student opinion; we do not solicit criticism, but welcome it as a measurement of our ability. We are anxious for your contributions, but to the committeemen who have a legitimate call on our time and to the handshakers whom we pointedly ignore, to both groups alike we raise a surprised eyebrow. This is rather late in the year to start helping us put out YOUR paper.

We need your cooperation. With the approach of summer reportorial and editorial positions open to members of the staff and with the natural feeling that a job is as important as the training they are getting for the job, we consequently watch them go with a feeling of envy. Subsequently, the work of the individual members of this group becomes harder and the hours longer.

We solicit contributions, we welcome opinions and we consider criticisms—but we tolerate no interference with the full-time job of publishing the Spartan Daily.

—Graham.

Spartans Triumphant

SCHOOL SONG WILL BE SUNG AT ASSEMBLY

A new school song, "Spartans Triumphant" by Edward Azhderian, will be introduced at the all-college nomination assembly to be held today at 11:20 in the quad, announces Tom Taylor, head yell-leader, and in charge of the program to precede the nominations.

The Spartan Daily herewith publishes the words of this song. Keep this copy of the paper and refer to the words during the assembly today.

SPARTANS TRIUMPHANT
Shout and sing for white and gold,

Rah, for Spartans true and bold;
Banners high wave to and fro
March, march onward, 'gainst the foe.

Like a knight in armor bright
Fight, you Spartans, fight!
While cheers of joy sound far and near

For dear old San Jose.

Candidates for yell leaders will be introduced to lead the song and to conduct the program, Taylor said.

Diet Ditties

Are you an "appetite squelcher" or an "appetite appeaser"? Did you ever sit down to a nice meal on a very nice and cheerful day, full of enthusiasm and ready to enjoy a meal and then have someone across the table say, "Whatta we have to have this glurp for . . . why can't we have some decent meals around this joint?" Right then and there your appetite is gone and the day is spoiled for you.

Did you ever watch someone eat who really enjoys food? It's a pleasure to watch him . . . My hat's off to the "appetite appeaser"! Let's be a little appreciative sometimes and try some of that "glurp"; you might find it's quite tasty after all!

PRESIDENT LUNDQUIST WRITES TO SENIOR CLASS

To the Senior Class of 1941:—

I should like to thank the class for their vote of confidence of last Thursday. I promised you then you would receive this information and feel that you have a right to know.

There is one basic reason for the substitution of more extensive activity on the beach for kidnapping and that is to save Sneak Week.

Unfortunately kidnapping was not part of the original plan and just edged in and grew "like Topsy". Thus with no control exercised it has grown to dangerous proportions. With only men active, the number of persons in on the fun is small in comparison to all the seniors. However, the group is large enough that with the increase of speeding cars it endangers not only their health but their lives. Investigation has shown it impossible now to regulate it, for the fun was in catching the other side at all cost.

Thus far each senior class has been luck, but soon, possibly this year, some serious consequence would result. When this happens, the college administration would have no alternative but to eliminate Sneak Week, and the opportunity for the rest of the class to have fun would be gone. This seemed unfair for the majority to sacrifice their fun for the sake of a few.

The other items of heavy property damage and the constant displeasure of the police at cars tearing through town at 50 miles an hour are important, but minor, compared to a permanent injury or death of some senior.

Your executive board is strongly opposed to taking any fun out of Sneak Week and is trying to give the greatest number of persons the most amount of fun. Your Sneak Week chairman, Walt Mazzone, has been working his committee overtime and they have come up with some really swell ideas.

Contrary to yesterday's editorial, there has been no "selling-out" of the seniors for a joint junior-senior "picnic". The only meeting of the officers of the two classes has been to fulfill the customary function of setting up rules for Sneak Week. The juniors are really on the outside looking in.

I can assure you that with the present plans and your fullest cooperation the juniors are in for a full day of searching and one-half the bill for the lunch. That is the penalty this year, beside the loss of one point, for the failure of the juniors to find the seniors by noon. We can do it, seniors, so let's go. Thank you again and I hope this letter has helped you to understand the board's recommendation for substituting a vigorous competitive program, open to all, on the beach for the past activity of kidnapping.

Sincerely,
Jus Lundquist,
Senior Class President.

FIRST STREET NEAR SANTA CLARA

SPORTS SIDELIGHTS

By OTTO TALLENT

A big week-end is in store for San Jose State college athletes who participate in the annual California Collegiate Athletic association sports carnival at Santa Barbara.

The Spartans have to defend championships in three sports — swimming, tennis, and golf. Coach Charley Walker's mermen have an excellent chance of taking the crown again this year. They have made a fine showing, and Walker deserves a hand for the job he has done.

Another coach who consistently puts out winning teams is Erwin Blesh. Although the Spartan tennis team has lost a few games lately, the outfit has a long string of wins to its credit. It is expected to give a good account of itself Saturday, but Fresno State is a strong contender for the crown.

Ronald Edwards will be hard to beat in the singles matches.

San Jose golfers, who have won six out of eight matches this season, are conceded a good chance of overpowering CCAA opponents.

While Fresno practically has the track title in the bag again this year, several Spartans are expected to take individual honors.

We will not be able to witness the sports carnival this week-end as we had planned, but we wish each team the best of luck.

Becoming sports editor of another newspaper tomorrow, I am glad to turn this page over to Ben Frizl, senior journalism major. Ben is no stranger to sports fans, having been co-sports editor of the Spartan Daily during the Fall quarter and captain of this year's varsity baseball team.

To Ben, Con Lacy, Wilbur Agee, Saul Simon, Chris Jensen and Walt Lerner, I wish to express my appreciation of their help this quarter in relaying sports news on to Washington Square students.

Spartan Netmen Lose To Tennis Clubbers, 7 To 2

San Jose Tennis club defeated Coach Erwin Blesh's varsity netmen in tennis play here yesterday, 7 to 2.

The Spartans succeeded in winning two singles matches in which Ronald Edwards defeated Gordon, 6-1, 6-2, and George Quetin won over Walter James, 6-1, 9-7.

The Tennis club ran up its margin in the doubles, taking all three matches. In the singles, the clubbers took four out of six.

Other results, all won by the club team:

Stan Bawmon defeated Nat Morton, 6-4, 6-1.

Earl Alderman defeated Eddie La Frank, 6-2, 6-4.

Ed Harper, former Spartan captain, defeated Vic Morton, 6-8, 6-4, 6-1.

Alderman and Bowman defeated Quetin and Vic Morton, 6-4, 6-3.

James and Clark defeated Andrews and Thorne, 6-1, 7-5.

KONOSHIMA, LATKA WIN BY TECHNICAL K.O.'S

Sparta's two Georgies, Latka and Konoshima, won their pro bouts at the Civic auditorium last night, both winning on technical knockouts.

Latka, looking better than ever after a long lay-off, showed a large house a new right hand wallop in disposing of Zeke Castro from Los Angeles in six rounds.

Konoshima, making his first pro start, won by a t.k.o. from Little Maxie Baer of Modesto in three rounds. Georgie, fighting in the featherweight class, couldn't accustom himself to the fight-for-pay racket in the first two rounds, but in the third he looked like the old college Georgie and punched Baer silly with a right smash to the chin.

Bear went down for nine, arose to run into another Konoshima storm. He hit the canvas for five counts, the referee stepping in to call a halt.

Latka, flashing a new wicked right hand punch, gave lightweight Castro a boxing and punching lesson. Castro weathered two severe storms, in the first and fifth rounds, and would have been kayoed but for the bell.

Two power-laden right hands did the work for Latka. In the fifth, all that kept Castro from zooming out of the ring was Georgie, who held onto Castro in a great display of sportsmanship. A bad cut over the left eye kept Castro from answering the bell for the seventh.

Draft, Stay Away

COACH PORTAL BUILDING FOR GREAT YEAR, BUT---

By CON LACY

According to present indications the Spartan boxing team will be the most powerful in history next year, but Coach DeWitt Portal is not overly optimistic for he is haunted with the specter of the draft.

Of the 1941 team, only Bill Moulden at 155 pounds is lost by graduation and his place can be capably filled by rugged Aubrey Minter. Minter is slated for a first team position and should really go places next year if he stays out of the army.

FOUR UNDER 21

Of the other seven veterans, four were under the 21 mark last registration. They are Bob Webber, Dick Miyagawa, Stan Smith and Jack Kemper. However, with a new registration slated for July, Portal is keeping his fingers crossed hoping they will all be back.

At 175 pounds, Jack Sarkisian performed for Sparta the past season, and Portal thought he had a potential national champion. However, Sarkisian will probably be light-heavyweight champion of Fort Ord next year, according to Portal.

GUERRA FLIES

Mark Guerra at 145 pounds, although having another year of eligibility, will probably be gone. Guerra gave the national champion, Elton Tobiasson of Cal Aggies, two of his toughest battles this year. But Guerra is enrolled in the CAA flying program and will have no time for gloves.

Roy Shimizu, classy little lightweight, has also received his questionnaire. Shimizu is one of Portal's outstanding beginners developed this year. He is only a sophomore and should have two more years to perform. But he will probably perform them in the army.

However, if Kemper, Smith, Miyagawa, and Webber can evade the draft for another year, the Spartans should have a well-balanced dual meet and tournament team with this experienced nucleus. The other positions can be filled from the horde of beginners now practicing in the elementary classes.

Frosh Tracksters Wind Up Season

With only one defeat chalked up against its record, the freshman track team will close a successful season Saturday when they meet Hayward high at the latter's track.

Several outstanding prospects were developed this year on the frosh squad. Foremost among these is hurdler Bud Vergegg with times of 15.5 in the high barriers and 24.5 in the lows.

"Big" John Wilson has thrown the shot 51 and the discus 138 feet this season. Sprinter Chuck Lindsay has turned in a 10.2 century. Dusky Charley Townsend has a 21-foot leap in the broad jump while he has been consistent in the low hurdles and the high jump.

Miller Dick Knox has turned in a creditable 4.46 four-lap race.

Coinsados And Chauncies Lead

The Chauncies and Coinsados took the lead in this week's intramural softball games when both teams took a 7-1 lead over their opponents in the first half play.

The Chauncies, behind the tight pitching of Pete Bruni, who limited the Leftovers' hits, scored freely.

Tom Haines held the Super Drupers scoreless until the final inning of the day, while the Coinsados were hitting freely off Bonnar Cox, pitcher for the Super Drupers.

HARTRANFT TAKING 18 MEN SOUTH FOR CCAA; WEIGHT EVENTS STRONG

Although he has no hopes of winning the championship, Coach Glenn (Tiny) Hartranft has picked 18 of his best tracksters to participate in the California Collegiate Athletic association sports carnival at Santa Barbara Saturday.

Hopes for the Spartans appear brightest in the weight events. San Jose is well supplied with top-notchers in the javelin throw, with John Dierker, Burton Stokes and George Terry.

Lawrence O'Connor will carry the load for Hartranft's team in the shot put, and O'Connor and Bill Talcott will take care of the discus event.

Captain Jim Kerr is expected to keep San Jose in the running in the 220 and 440-yard events. Fred Kmetovic will also be entered in the quarter mile, and Henry Ruiz will enter the 220-yard dash.

Sat Yamamoto, who has leaped more than 24 feet, should be able to score points for the Spartans in the broad jump. Sammy Miller will also participate in that event.

Miller and Henry Ruiz will enter the 100-yard dash; Richard Campion and Wayne Rose, high hurdles; Kerney Sigler, mile and 880; Terry and Henry Schneider, pole vault; Al Ornelas, two-mile; Roger Romine, high jump; and Willard Shank and Dave Siemon, low hurdles.

BOXING TONIGHT

Youngsters between ages of 10 and 15 will present their weekly Civitan Boys' club boxing program in Spartan pavilion tonight. Admission is free.

Minor Bumps And Bruises Prevent Grid Scrimmage

With minor bumps and bruises bothering them, Coach Ben Winkelman's Spartan gridgers rolled through a two-hour practice session yesterday afternoon, but no scrimmage was involved. Tonight the State squad takes to the arc lights for the fourth time.

Coach Winkelman was undecided whether or not he would scrimmage his boys tonight. But the most important news out of yesterday's practice was the news that Aubrey Minter, fleet Negro halfback, worked out. Minter is not registered in school this quarter but is expected back in the fall.

Jack House, who sustained a head injury in Monday's workout, was still in the Health Cottage, but was being held merely for observation. Yesterday's doings were confined for the most part to passing practice and running plays. Chet Carsten, with a bandage on his right knee, did most of the tossing and looked impressive.

Captain Bob Hamill is still bothered with a shoulder pointer but continues to do light exercises.

X-RAY MOVIE TOMORROW NIGHT IN ROOM S112

Previously reported as scheduled for today, the movie, "Exploring With X-Rays", will be shown tomorrow night at 7:30 in room S112 of the Science building.

Presented under the auspices of the Health department, this film is a four-reel affair produced and loaned to the school by the General Electric corporation.

According to advance reports the film is designed to offer to the layman an idea of the scope of the use of X-rays and to inform him in an entertaining manner of its potentialities.

To aid in this procedure Dr. William D. Coolidge, world famous for his researches in X-ray and his development of X-ray tubes, tells in person, an ABC story of the physics of this paradoxical phenomena—what makes X-rays, and how.

Presented in dramatic form is the history of the rays from their discovery in the nineteenth century until their present usage in a thousand tasks undreamed of a century ago.

For this 40 minutes of entertainment no admission will be charged.

Health Sign-Up

Students expecting to receive teaching credentials in June are urged to sign up in the Health office at once for physical examinations required for this credential. Those expecting to receive teaching credentials in December and who will be doing their practice teaching during the fall quarter should arrange for a physical examination now.

COSMOPOLITAN GROUP PLANS OPEN HOUSE

The campus Cosmopolitan club will sponsor an open-house party Friday night at the Student Center, to begin at 7:30, announce Fernando Taggawa and Floradeane Russell, co-chairmen of the group.

In addition to a social evening, there will be a discussion of problems of racial groups on campus. Guest speaker will be Phyllis Kahn of the Cosmopolitan club at the University of California. She will tell about racial problems faced by students there, and how the Cosmopolitan group solved some of them.

Meryle Rogers is in charge of the evening's plans. All students are invited, and there will be no charge made for admission.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB PLANS TRIP SATURDAY

A group trip to San Francisco Saturday afternoon and evening will be sponsored by the Cosmopolitan club, announces Floradeane Russell, who, with Fernando Taggawa, is co-chairman.

The trip will include a conducted tour of Chinatown, with emphasis upon out-of-the-way places that tourists ordinarily do not get a chance to see, a Chinese dinner and a visit to a Chinese theater. All men and women students are invited, says Miss Russell.

Total cost for transportation and food will be $1.52. Those wishing to go are asked to sign up on the main bulletin board or in the "Y" office in the Student Center so that adequate transportation can be arranged.

The group will meet at 1 o'clock Saturday in front of the Student Union, leaving immediately, and will return to San Jose at about 11 p.m.

PRESIDENT ADDS DRAFT DATA

"National Selective Service Headquarters has asked us to co-operate with all local draft boards and supply them with full information about each student registrant. We are glad to do that, as the information we have will be of importance to the defense program in helping officials to place our young men where they will be able to render greatest service.

"The college, of course, will take no part in any attempt at draft evasion, but we shall be glad to co-operate in requests for deferment on the part of students who come within the regulations of the national board. Certain students of outstanding ability who have objectives which will finally contribute to the success of this great national effort, are entitled to deferment and should ask for it. What we are anxious to do is to place our best judgment at the service of the draft boards in order that the full intent of the act shall be accomplished.

"Dean Pitman has been receiving from national headquarters a steady stream of communications indicating the various decisions and rulings which will apply. Those communications are on file in his office and are available.

"The college has set up a local consulting board consisting of Dean Pitman, Dr. Peterson, Mr. Hartman, Dr. Sotzin and Dr. Poytress. These men will hold frequent meetings, at which time various cases will be considered. They will individually hold themselves ready to consult with any student at any time who may have questions about the operations of the Selective Service Act."

— T. W. MacQuarrie.

PEGASUS ELECTS NEW MEMBER AT MEETING

Otto Petersen, senior education major, was elected to Pegasus, literary honor society, for his work in the medium of free verse, at Monday night's meeting of the group at the home of Kenneth Wallace, Pegasus president.

Plans were made for a reception for winners of the Phelan literary awards, to take place on May 27, probably at Montalvo estate near Saratoga. June 6 was set as a tentative date for an initiation banquet, to be held at the Chinese Lantern.

Draft Rule Explanations

Applications of students for deferment have to be approved by their department head, and then be okayed by the college committee on selective service.

The affidavits are to be filled out only by students who have already received their questionnaires.

The college committee on selective service was appointed by Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie and consists of the following: Paul Pitman, P. V. Peterson, Glenn Hartman, William Poytress and A. Sotzin.

The committee will meet every Tuesday and Friday afternoon to approve or disapprove affidavits until the end of the college term, June 13.

Poster May Cause Scholarship Loss

A missing extravaganza sign poster may cost some person a scholarship, and it would be appreciated if it were returned at once to either the Business office or Miss Gail Tucker. According to Miss Tucker, someone took the sign, and the girl who designed it intended to add it to her group of previously designed signs and compete for a scholarship.

No questions will be asked. The poster depicts a Javanese girl with a bowl of fruit on her head.
